Opposition For Morris.

The story was afloat yesterday that an effort was being made to induce George D. Pyper to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for city treasurer against the present incum-bent, Richard Morris. It was stated, too, that this movement was really in the interest of O. F. Whitney, who formerly served for eight years in that capacity.

Fight Over Recordership.

The race for the Democratic nomination for recorder grows in interest as the convention draws near. The candidates, Bachman, Levey and Holt, are hustling at a lively rate among the delegates. Conservative friends of Bachman claim for him at least 269 votes on the first ballot, with the balance scattering.

running fight last spring. An appeal has been taken in the case and the transcript of evidence taken at the trial was filed in the supreme court yesterday.

Majors was tried and convicted under the name of James Morgan, and the latter name appears on the papers filed yesterday. "I am thoroughly convinced of the innocence of Majors," said Mr. Call. "and have not the slightest doubt. Call, "and have not the slightest doubt but that the supreme court will order the case remanded for a new trial. I take this position for several reasons, any one of which would be sufficient.

Affidavit of Misconduct.

"In the first place, I have filed an affidavit from Verone Phillips relative to misconduct on the part of William Posgreen, one of the trial jurors. When Fosgreen, one of the trial jurors. When he was being examined as to his competency, Fosgreen swore that he could try the case impartially. He said he would be willing to have Majors sit on a jury to try him, if their positions were reversed, although he might know that Majors entertained the same feelings toward him that he entertained toward Majors. That is to say, he felt thoroughly competent to try Majors and did not entertain any prejudice against him.

"Now. Fosgreen said to Phillips and to several other citizens whose affidation will be filed, that if he got on the jury he would certainly hang Majors. So much for misconduct on the part of this juror. In the next place, we have discovered some new evidence which was held back by the prosecution at his the trial although the county attorney was cognizant of it.
